Looking for a Part-Time Teaching Job?

Connect with Tokyo Academics!

Tokyo Academics is the passion project of teachers, researchers, and academics in Tokyo, Japan. Since 2012, we've evolved from a few university friends tutoring at a tiny restaurant in Tokyo to an organization of academic, test prep, and college admissions experts, helping over 1500 students reach their academic potential.

Our community celebrates diverse backgrounds. We are a truly international and English-speaking working and learning environment, with colleagues from every continent (but Antarctica).

We recruit exceptional individuals, where all Tokyo Academic colleagues possess outstanding backgrounds, intellectual curiosity, and, above all, a passion for service. We are constantly improving our teaching methods, our curriculum, our organization, and our platform to deliver the highest degree of service and impact for our students.

Teach and mentor students

We are recruiting outstanding individuals to join our tutoring and teaching team. All tutors have exceptional academic credentials and/or professional backgrounds, making Tokyo Academics one of the most inspiring educational organizations in Japan.

Core Subjects include: Reading comprehension, Writing, Math, Chemistry, Physics, Biology, and Standardized Test Prep (SAT/ACT, SSAT/ISEE, etc.)

Our students range from elementary, middle, and high school.

We have flexible hours to fit your schedule, whether you are a post-secondary student seeking meaningful part-time work to leverage your educational background or a working professional aiming to build a career in education/teaching. Full-time, part-time, remote, and/or in-person work arrangements are available.
